WAR! WARI! WAR!!! Declared against the United Kingdoms of the Hats, Mice, and other Vermin! THE undersigned, lately from Germany, offers I to the public of this city a very useful and in-allible mixture to get rid of these burdensome and jurious guests, which are getting so numerous at if we don't look out for them, they will, in a not time, competus to leave our good and prosperons city, and give these blood-thirting savages pos-ession of it. This composition is not like others, dangerous then applied. There is no arsenic or any other oison about it, that could by any accident endanese or kitten, you need not be afruid, for it would not hust them it they should ent of it; but it will ill every rescally rat that tastes only a little of it, and they cannot help doing so, as the flavor of that deliency seems to be the "ne plus ultra" in their gastronomy. It has to be applied to a piece of bread of about a square inch and about a quarter of an inch thick, and late in the evening—it wants to be out to a suitable place, int-hole, or wherever they are used to hold their necturnal meetings. But to get them newly entirely from our premises, we have to make use of this great palls tive at once.
